Ina Ohler New President Lionette Club

A most enjoyable evening was experienced by the Vulcan Lionettes Monday evening when Mrs. Judy Tokarek of Judy's Millinery Supplies, Calgary, demonstrated the art of hat-making to a most appreciative audience.

After a lovely supper served by the CWL, president Rose Munro brought the meeting to order and the minutes, financial report and correspondence was dealt with accordingly.

A motion was made and passed that the Lionettes enter a float in the Dominion Day Parade in Vulcan that could also be taken to the 50th Anniversary Celebration at Lomond the following week.

Nominations of officers for the ensuing year resulted as follows: President, Ina Ohler; 1st vice-president June Wellman; 2nd vice-president Lillian Deal; 3rd vice-president, Ruth Dann; Secretary-treasurer, Freda Jones; Tail-twisters, Ruth Richardson and Mae Webb; Lion Tamers, Eileen Schuler and Lill Klippert; Directors, one year, Eleanor Bucholtz and Verna Wolochaty; two years, Grace Taylor and Laura O'Reilly.

The entertainment committee for the May meeting consists of Lola Findlay, Verna Wolochaty and June Wellman. Following the adjournment of the business, several of the Lionettes accompanied Judy in her hat-making demonstration and ended up with charming new summer creations. The keen interest of the members prompted a series of lessons being organized, commencing in May.

Census Commissioners For This Area Are Appointed

A. W. Ulrich and C. J. Versluys, both of Champion, have been appointed as Census Commissioners for Districts 812-5 and 812-4 respectively of Census Division 2, for the Census of Population and the Farm Census, which begins June 1.

Mr. Ulrich's district comprises the area roughly bounded by the Blackfoot Indian Reservation to the north, the Little Bow river at Carmangay to the south, Lake McGregor and its canal from the Bow River to the east. The western boundary is a line roughly from Stavelo to Connemara but not including the town of Nanton. It includes the town of Vulcan and the villages of Arrowwood and Champion.

Mr. Versluys' district is, roughly, the corresponding area east of Lake McGregor, from the Blackfoot Reservation south, and includes the communities of Milo, Majorville, Lomond, Enchant and Turin. The Carmangay district, south of the Little Bow, is also included in District 812-4.

The two census districts together encompass all the County of Vulcan plus some additional territory.

Mr. Ulrich's district will be divided into 15 sub-districts, employing a staff of 19 census takers. Mr. Versluys' district will be divided into 20 sub-districts with a staff of 20 census takers.

Persons interested in employment as census takers are invited to contact either Commissioner. Both Mr. Ulrich and Mrs. Versluys will have their offices in their farm homes in the Champion district.

Everybody will have the opportunity to "Be Counted for Canada" when census takers call at every home in Canada starting on June 1. They will be taking the population census which consists of just five questions, and the farm census which will also be simple but with more questions listed. They will also record all business establishments to develop a master list for the Census of Merchandising which will be completed by mail after the end of the 1966 fiscal year.

The Population Census is expected to be completed entirely within two weeks (and the Farm Census within three weeks).

The listing of businesses for the Census of Merchandising at the end of the 1966 fiscal year will also be completed within that time.

The census schedules are carefully checked by the Census Commissioner and get a further check at the regional office of Dominion Bureau of Statistics, in this case at Edmonton. But the compilation of figures, and the release of all statistical data is made at Ottawa after returns are processed through the computer centre there.

Both local commissioners are stressing the need for public co-operation. This need is emphasized, they told The Advocate, by the slogan being used for the 1966 Census, which is: "Be Counted For Canada." The law requires everybody to answer the census questions, but the census can only be complete and accurate if the public co-operates, he said.

They also emphasized the secrecy of the census answers, pointing out that everybody working for the census, which Dominion Bureau of Statistics administers, is required to take an oath of secrecy.

It is hoped to have repair work completed within two weeks, meanwhile production in the shop is carrying on at a reduced level during the interval.

Services Held For Former Sup't.

Services for Andrew Lewis Schrag, 58, who died March 24, were held at Ponoka United Church on March 28, 1966.

Well known throughout the County of Vulcan, Mr. Schrag was superintendent of schools here before taking a similar post at Ponoka five years ago.

He graduated from the University of Alberta with Bachelor of Science and Education degrees in 1926 and taught school at Provost, Drumheller and East Coulee before joining the army in 1940. During the war he served in England, Italy and Sicily as a captain in the Royal Canadian Electrical and Mechanical Engineers, 3rd Division.

He was a past master of the Vulcan Masonic Lodge, and affiliated past master of the Ponoka Lodge, and a member of the Scottish Rite and the Calgary Shrine. Besides his wife, Edna, he is survived by two sons, Ross and Robert, both of Edmonton; his father, Rev. A. R. Schrag, a retired United Church minister; one brother, Dr. Ralph Schrag, and a sister, Mrs. George Chambers, of Edmonton.

C.W.L. Elects New Officers

The annual meeting of the Vulcan Council of the CWL was held in St. Andrew's Hall in the afternoon of April 13. President Mrs. Lorna Gerding was in the chair, assisted by Mrs. Louis Shaw, acting as secretary.

The quilt made by the ladies, will be raffled at a tea in June. The feast of Our Lady of Good Counsel will be observed in Champion on April 26, at 9:00 a.m. It was agreed that the ladies serve lunch at the Scales sale on Monday, April 16.

The election results are as follows: President, Mrs. Leslie Shaw; vice-presidents, Mrs. Alice Scales, Mrs. Rose Douville, Mrs. Louis Shaw; secretary, Mrs. Mary Bartman; treasurer, Mrs. Elizabeth Thiering; Counsellors, Mrs. Marcelle MacKay and Mrs. Pete Douville.

Father Marien presented the retiring president Mrs. Lorna Gerding with a gift and expressed appreciation for her two years of service to the CWL. On behalf of the council, Mrs. Gerding gave a remembrance to Fr. Marien who has been transferred to St. Basil's, Lethbridge.

Wet Snow Blankets All

Starting late Sunday night, a heavy, wet snowfall of about five inches had blanketed the Vulcan district by Monday morning, being particularly heavy north and east of town and thinning out towards the south and west. On Tuesday, however a day-long snowstorm was fairly general throughout Southern Alberta, bringing another seven or eight inches of the wet, white stuff to this area and even more to other parts of the province.

In most parts of the County of Vulcan, an inch or more of moisture will result from the snowstorm, giving needed surface moisture and putting the land in good shape for spring seeding operations.

Calving is completed on many farms in this area but those having new-born calves within the last few days are hard pressed caring for them.

East of the Reinhold Lundgren farm on the Lomond road, Tuesday night a semi-trailer truck from the Vernon Meyers ranch, loaded with grain, jackknifed on the slippery road and ditched the trailer unit. It had not been pulled out by Wednesday morning.

Although snow continued Tuesday night and temperatures dropped to 18 degrees at Calgary, the sun appeared briefly Wednesday morning and the forecast was for warmer weather.

Although local R.C.M.P. report no serious accidents, travel on highways has been discouraged during the storm because of the condition of main roads, which are generally fairly clear, but extremely slippery.

Champion to H.R. Junction

Request Increase In Speed Limit On '23

A request that the speed limit on Highway No. 23, from Champion to the junction with No. 2 Highway east of High River be raised to 65 m.p.h., has been made by Ray Speaker, MLA for Little Bow, to Hon. Gordon Taylor, Minister of Highways.

This stretch of Highway 23 is built to Trans-Canada highway standards, with wide shoulders. Present speed limit on it is 60 m.p.h. during the day and 50 m.p.h. at night.

The Highways Minister has promised his full co-operation and consideration. Mr. Speaker hopes that a favorable announcement regarding this matter will be made fairly soon.

Sportsmen's Dinner Honors Athletes Of Milo School

(Special to The Advocate)

A Sportsmen's Dinner was held Friday evening in the Milo High School Auditorium to honor the athletes of this school. This season both senior boys and girls teams won the County of Vulcan trophies for both basketball and volleyball.

Members of the girls team were Captain Elva Peterson, Clara Northcott, Sharon Northcott, Betty Lahd, Ellen Thompson, Wendy McMorris, Terry Heather, Joan Smith, Coreta Ensign and Danna Mae McCord. Barry Gore was the girls' coach. Members of the boys team were Captain Leonard Peterson, David Smith, James Oldfield, Gordon Gore, Leighton Rushfeldt, Garry Robertson, Doug Umscheid, Murdo Mc-Intyre, Barry Robertson and Carter Ensign. The boys' coach was Steven Fluter.

The head table guests included the boys and girls teams, Mr. and Mrs. Bernie Sparkes, Calgary; Mr. and Mrs. Ray Kingsmith, Calgary; Mr. and Mrs. Delbert Olsen, Vulcan; Mr. and Mrs. Keith Wagner, Champion; Barry Gore, Mr. and Mrs. Steven Fluter, Mrs. Adeline Stebbing and Miss Pat Nugent, all of Milo.

The evening was highlighted by the presence of Bernie Sparkes, member of Ron Northcott's curling team that won the Edmonton Car Spel, placed second in the Calgary Masters, won the Provincial Consuls, then went on to win the Dominion Brier, and later Scotch Cup. While in Halifax at the Brier, Bernie Sparkes was picked the best player on all the teams, the one with the best personality, and was also picked to go to Sweden for a three-month period to teach curling.

Principal Steven Fluter welcomed the guests who had gathered to honor the young people. Barry Gore gave an account of the season's activities of the girls' teams and introduced Captain Elva Peterson who introduced the players. Mr. Fluter pointed out the highlights of the boys' season and Captain Leonard Peterson introduced the boys' team.

In his address Mr. Sparkes, a former Claresholm resident, expressed his pleasure at being asked to attend and thanked the students for giving him a chance to have the last word in a basketball technically disagreement with Mr. Fluter when he was a student at that school.

Guest speaker for the evening was Ray Kingsmith, president of the Southern Alberta Curling Association. Mr. Kingsmith reminisced about events from his earlier days in the Queenstown-Milo district. In his entertaining manner he also talked about the Brier team which he accompanied to Halifax and from there broadcast the games for radio station CFCN.

The supper was in the form of Chinese dishes (including fortune cookies) provided by the local restaurant personnel.

The evening ended by the showing of a film entitled, The Winning Team, which portrayed the true story of Grover Cleveland Alexander, immortal pitcher of an earlier era.

"Belle of Bagdad" Returns, Rested And Ready

(By Peter Pickersgill)

County Central High School's comic operetta "The Belle of Bagdad," which closed its curtain April 4 following the first of a three-night run, will finish its engagement Monday and Tuesday nights of next week.

Sudden onslaught of the flu among several leading members of the student cast brought this crisis about, however all are now reported completely healthy and anticipating the repeat performance.

Of the 15 students who took lead parts in the operetta April 4, five were ill at curtain time. Betty Dakin, taking a lead part as Jewel, and Beverly Budd as Henrietta Whiplash, were both confined to bed the day of the performance and were running high temperatures on stage. Neither girl was able to return to classes that week. Donald Hansen, and Nadine Eliuk, one of the dancing girls, were both suffering from the flu and Jack Toews, another of the lead cast, was also a sudden victim. His part was taken after one hour's rehearsal by Gordon Brown. This, in addition to opening night nerves and sickness must have added to the tension of the rest of the cast but didn't appear to affect the standard in who, although he had to read his part, portrayed his role of Londoner Archie Fitzgibbons, extremely well.

As the operetta moved through its various settings during the two acts, the young cast quickly found favor with the crowd which must have been surprised at the color and effect from over 40 brightly costumed students and the settings, designed and constructed by students. A critical viewer might have found fault with the chorus numbers which lacked in volume but this could have been attributed to lack of experience, sickness among key members or in the acoustics of the auditorium. Some listeners may have found the piano accompaniment too dominant at times but this may have been necessary to help bring singers in on their proper cue.

The specially installed sound system generally carried the voices well throughout the hall and any weaknesses could have been in the individual's singing.

The dance routines might have been done with a little more abandon and occasionally the humor of a situation was lost through poor infection or timing but the whole (Continued On Page 7)

SEEDLING SHIPPING WORK UNDERWAY

The packing and shipping of 10,000,000 tree seedlings from the PFRA Tree Nurseries at Indian Head and Sutherland, Sask., is in progress. The Superintendent of the Indian Head nursery, Dr. W. H. Cram, says that with favorable weather conditions, shipping should be completed by May 6.

Tree seedlings are made available to farmers in Manitoba, Saskatchewan and Alberta
under the Canada Department of Agriculture program of farm protection and beautification through tree production.
There is no charge for the trees
except for delivery costs.

Dr. Cram says that all farmers receiving trees will be notified by means of an advice card
in the mail a few days in advance of delivery. He suggests that trees should be picked up from express offices as soon as possible and that if immediate planting is not possible, the trees should be removed from their bales and stored in moist soil in a shaded area until planted.

Dr. Cram says that trees for which orders were received before the end of February will be shipped first in carload lots to the various regions, while orders received after that date

will be shipped individually. Dr.
Cram notes that due to improved facilities and handling techniques, it is possible this year to accept orders until April 29. He indicates that there are still small quantities of caragana, maple, ash and American elm seedlings available.

Orders can be forwarded directly to the PFRA Tree Nursery at Indian Head, or through local Agricultural Representatives. No late orders will be held over, and those not filled
this year must be resubmitted
for 1967 plantings.

FERTILIZER ON DARK BROWN SOIL & GRASS

One of our local experts on Dry land culture from the Lethbridge Research Station is advocating high rates of nitrogen. Dr. Smith says high rates of nitrogen fertilizer produce profitable hay yields on cultivated grasses in the dark brown soil zone. It could mean a change of thinking is needed about fertilizer rates for increasing yields on dryland in the dark brown soil zone.

A test was conducted on an old brome, creeping red fescue hay field that was producing less than a ton of hay over a three year period. It had once contained alfalfa
but this had long since died out.
Nitrogen was applied at rates
from zero to 800 pounds per acre.
It has had a residual effect on the yields since the fertilizer was applied three years ago and Mr.
Smith expects the effects will still show up next year.

Hay yields over the three year period increased up to the 480
pounds of nitrogen per acre rate and tended to level off there. The most economical increases in yield were obtained from nitrogen applied at 100 pounds per acre. Over the three year period this gave a hay yield of two and three-quarter tons per acre. If you can irrigate or apply even limited amounts of supplemental water you may find that 200 or more pounds per acre will be most economical. Nitrogen at 450 pounds per acre gave yields of seven and one-half tons per acre over the three year period.
This was still an economical increase in yield valuing hay at $15 per ton.

Dr. Smith has found that the cultivated species respond differently to fertilizer. The fescue was killed out when the nitrogen rate got as high as 400 pounds per acre. The brome grass was not damaged even at the high rates.
Earlier work has indicated that native grasses also respond differently to fertilizer applications.

Results so far indicate a great potential for the use of high rates of fertilizer on tame dryland pastures on the dark brown soils. It could be useful to farmers and ranchers who are sometimes reluctant to break up old stands of grass because of the expense and the difficulty in establishing new stands.

Cost to date of the 4,891-mile Trans-Canada Highway has been $1.5 billion, of which the federal contribution has been $584 million.
False pleasure will be, is chased; it has no right to be at peace.

From The Legislature

(By Ray Speaker, M.L.A.)

Monday, April 18, the Legislative Assembly prorogued after 41 days of sitting. Committee of the Whole Study, and third reading of Bills;
debate of the report of the Legislative Committee on auto insurance; the Lieutenant Governor, Grant MacEwan giving assent to the Bills making them Acts; followed by a traditional barrage of paper from the press gallery, was the order of the day.

Automobile Insurance Report
The auto insurance committee report made recommendations
which I summarize for you:

(1) The Attorney General reports the Canadian Underwriters Association to the Director of the Combines Act for apparent price fixing. C.U.A. refuses to permit its members to sell insurance at a premium lower than the rate set in their manual. This restricts free competition and therefore, appears to be an infringement of Canadian law.

(2) Executive Council consider setting up a Commission to carry out full scale examination of finances of automobile insurance companies in Alberta.

(3) That a person, possibly called a Provincial Automobile Insurance Claims Officer be appointed,
would have the duty to investigate and process complaints from individuals and companies.

(4) That Insurance Companies
be required to process and settle claims within a stipulated period.
(suggested 90 days).

(5) That Insurance Companies
separate payments for property damage claims for claims for injuries.

(6) That insurance companies
when cancelling a policy, that has already been written, be required to give a reason for the cancellation.

(7) That the insurance industry
should not place all unmarried male drivers under 25 in the high risk premium classes.

(8) That the insurance industry
provide an incentive to particularly new young drivers, by returning part of the premium, possibly the surcharge, providing there is no accident or conviction during the year.

(9) That automobile manufacturers be required by law to incorporate improved safety features that may be recommended by the Committee set up by the Canadian Government.

(10) That legislation providing for the following be prepared, designed to remove incompetent and irresponsible drivers from the road:

(a) Where a person has two or more charges for offences such as
"driving while under suspension,"
"driving while disqualified," "driving while impaired," "criminal negligence," and "dangerous driving" that the Court cancel the person's license for a five year period.

(b) where a person, at a later time, has a third conviction for any of these offences, that there be a goal term and cancellation of the license.

(c) That a proviso give the Court
authority to reinstate the license
on a permit basis in extenuating circumstances.

There were a total of 30 recommendations and if anyone wishes
a copy of the total report, please feel free to request a copy
from me.

From The Legislature

(By Ray Speaker, M.L.A.)

Committee of the Whole study and third reading to some 80 of a total possible 112 Bills, discussion of two government motions, occupied the Legislators sittings last week. Two night sittings, along with the routine 2:30 to 5:30 daily sittings formulated the schedule for debate and decision making.

The University Act Amendments in Bill 77

Bill 77's main purpose is to establish two provincial Universities—the University of Alberta and the University of Calgary—and to reorganize university administration. A University Commission is established to act as an intermediary between the universities and the Government and to exercise certain regulatory functions with respect to the Universities. Provision is also made for the establishment of additional universities.

I spoke on this last provision urging our government to recognize Lethbridge as a centre for the location of the third degree granting university. In doing this emphasis were placed on the representation I have had on this matter. The academic and facility needs along with the economics of such an institution were also discussed.

Special Legislative Committee

Our government, by resolution, set up a committee to receive and inquire into, and make recommendations on matters with respect to (a) the centralization of schools, (b) educational opportunities offered in elementary and secondary schools, and (c) the problem of centralization and consolidation in the rural areas and smaller cities with particular reference to vocational high schools. Committee members are Messieurs Lamothe, Aloisio, Senych, Benoit and Maccagno. They will report to the 1967 session.

Persons or groups wishing to make submissions should start to prepare same soon as the committee will most likely want them by the end of July for study and to plan their agenda of Province wide meetings.

Majority Votes

Three Bills of interest, Bill 38, Bill 64 and Bill 75 amending the Public Health Act, Lords Day Act and The Daylight Saving Act, respectively, will contain the simple majority vote principle when they become Acts.

In the Public Health Act the amendment will change the requirements for plebiscite approval of fluoridation in any communal water supply from a two thirds of the participating voters to a simple majority of the participating voters.

In the Lords Day Act the amendment will authorize commercial sports on Sunday afternoons between the hours of half past one and six o'clock in municipalities where a majority of the electors vote in favor thereof.

In the Daylight Saving Act the amendments authorized a majority vote on daylight saving time on a Provincial basis. Daylight saving time if a plebiscite received a majority vote would occur between two o'clock in the morning of the last Sunday in April and two o'clock in the morning of the last Sunday in October.

In Canada's first federal election, in 1867, voting took place from August 7 to September 20.

HONOUR

In Exodus the 20th chapter we find the Ten Commandments. I am sure that most of the readers of this article, are well acquainted with and perhaps some could even quote them from memory. Yet being acquainted with them or even knowing them is not enough, we must live them.

I would like us to think about the fifth commandment, which is, "Honour thy father and mother: that thy days may be long upon the land which the Lord thy God giveth thee." This is a commandment that seems to have been neglected by so many people. There are those of course, who do honour their parents, but many are disrespectful to them. Some, whose parents have reached the sunset years, can't be bothered to go and visit the ones who looked after them, raised them, and loved them.

An African custom, of a certain tribe, comes to my mind, and a true example, illustrating it. This tribe believed that when a person became a liability, then they should be done away with, and so this was done one way or another. There was an old lady who used to come and see the missionaries at the mission station quite frequently, when all of a sudden she no longer appeared. After some questioning it was learned that her son had let her starve to death. She could no longer help make her own living so he didn't want her around any more.

You might say, "Now look, I wouldn't do that." No, but your parents are a nuisance as far as you are concerned.

There are many aged people, whose lives are very lonely, and we do not have the time to go and help cheer them up.

Let us remember that some day we will be old. Have we treated the elderly as we would like to be treated in our sunset years.

The Latin "carratta", fore-runner of the modern cart, originally meant a two-wheeled vehicle.

Ted Wylie Is Groom At Pincher Creek Wedding

Pincher Creek United Church was the setting for the marriage of Sharlene Gall Richards, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Cyril Richards of Pincher Creek, and Ted Allan Wylie, son of Mr. and Mrs. William Wylie of Vulcan.

Rev. Lawrence Edwards officiated at the double-ring ceremony, and the Senior Choir assisted with the service. Mrs. Ralph Cleland, the bride's aunt, was organist, and a duet, O Perfect Love, was sung by an uncle and second cousin of the bride, Ralph Cleland and Dennis Cleland, during the signing of the register.

Bouquets of white mums and pink snapdragons and white candles, graced the sanctuary for the candlelight service.

The bride, given in marriage by her father, chose a floor-length white taffeta gown. It featured lily point sleeves and a waistline accented by lace appliques, and a bow at the back. Her veil of illusion net and lace appliques was held in place by a pill box headpiece. She wore a single strand of pearls, a gift of the groom, and carried a cascade bouquet of pink roses and white stephanotis.

Bridal attendants were from Pincher Creek. Miss Beverley Turnbull was bridesmaid, and twin sisters of the bride, Joyce and Joanne Richards, were junior bridesmaids. All wore identical pink full skirted gowns of terylene batiste, complimented by matching bow headpieces. They carried colonial bouquets of pink and white carnations.

The groom's attendants were his brothers Jerry, Bill and Tom Wylie of Vulcan and Brant. Pat Wylie, the groom's younger brother, lit the candles in the sanctuary prior to the ceremony. The ushers were cousins of the bride, Danny and Garry Cleland of Pincher Creek. The groom, his attendants and ushers wore matching ties of unique styling.

At the reception in Dieppe Memorial Hall, the master of ceremonies was the bride's uncle, Ray Cleland of Milk River. Roy Easterbrook of Calgary, a great uncle of the bride, proposed the toast to the bride. Mrs. George Richardson of Vulcan, sister of the groom, was in charge of the guest book. Mrs. Jim Mitchell displayed the gifts.

A wedding dance followed. Walter Cleland of Bow Island and Mrs. Jean Cleland of Pincher

A GENERAL MOTORS VALUE

Pontiac Laurentian Four-Door Sedan

A lot of our advertising appears in people's driveways.

Pontiac's beauty sells a lot of Pontiacs. Consider the arrogance of its split grille. The long, lean sculpted body. That nimble-looking, distinctively-Pontiac stance. But we have a clever device for selling even more Pontiacs. We call it our Pontiac dealer. He's the man with all the answers. He can show you, for instance, exactly why it is that we're putting more of our Success Cars in people's driveways than ever before. He's a man you should make it a special point to meet. He can tell you about Pontiac's lavish interiors with their host of standard equipment luxury and safety features. He'll even demonstrate Pontiac's new brand of performance if you're feeling adventurous. But more important than anything else, he can give you an excellent deal on the Pontiac of your choice. And let you do some advertising for us.

Be sure to watch "Telescope", "The Fugitive" and "The Red Skelton Hour" now showing on television. Check local listings for time and channel.

Estate Taxes

Alberta's farming population in particular will welcome the resolution introduced in the legislature recently by Premier Manning in respect to estate taxes.

The premier said that next year (1967) the legislature will be asked to enact legislation whereby the province's 75 per cent share of estate taxes now levied in Alberta will be relinquished to the beneficiaries. At the same time, the federal government will be asked to relinquish its share — the remaining 25 per cent.

We have long felt that estate taxes should be abolished; that these death duties all too often work a financial hardship on the beneficiaries of a will by forcing the sale of a thriving business or the selling of a part of a good farm unit in order to pay the estate taxes.

In a farming area such as the County of Vulcan where the average farm is now about a section in size, the inflated value of farm land in recent years means that the estate of almost every farmer who dies is now subject to estate taxes. Quite frequently this means that essential working capital must be used or part of the farm must be sold in order to pay the death duties, and whatever method is used to pay off the government the farm as an efficient working unit is adversely affected.

Revenue from estate taxes is an extremely small percentage of the total revenue of both provincial and federal government and by itself cannot justify retention of the estate tax by the federal government.

Emergency Health Services Program—

Under the organizational program, the Emergency Health Services have recognized that existing health agencies and organizations form the basic structure of an emergency service. In the first place, encouragement is given to hospitals to carry out disaster planning. This encouragement has consisted of the presentation of a series of hospital disaster planning institutes across Canada, the publication of manuals, the offer of special disaster supplies to hospitals with approved plans and the announcement by the Canadian Council on Hospital Accreditation that disaster planning is an essential requirement for accreditation.

REPORT FROM EDMONTON

By J. Wally Strang

(April 14)

As the legislature grinds slowly to a halt... the most important legislation of the session is being pushed through at break neck speed. As most readers already know, it's very possible that we may have Sunday sport this year as well as daylight saving time. It's quite interesting to note that when the same legislation was brought before the house by the opposition it never got anywhere near first base. This time because it was government proposed, it went through with flying colors.

A PEEK AHEAD

Look for fireworks to start because a mechanical engineer named Dave Panar who was a consultant for the department of public works and who has taken a six-month leave of absence from his professors post at the U of A... is rumored to be in line for some fantastic government contracts... they reportedly involve the AGT Building, the 50 million dollar Medical Centre at the U of A and U of A power plant. To top it off rumors say he does not even have an organization, but is very close to others who receive healthy government appointments. The engineering fraternity is hot.

HOOKE TAKES HIS STAND

The minister of municipal affairs, Alfie Hooke, took his stand last week in one of the most scathing attacks this writer has witnessed. His target was Mayor Vince Dantzer of Edmonton and Edmonton City Council. Mr. Hooke pounded his desk and shouted for almost an hour that he was doing right, and that he was standing his ground. He showed how the city was making money with the new legislation and not losing as suggested by Mayor Dantzer. Mr. Hooke also lambasted the way the city council went about objecting to the proposed legislation... and left the impression that everything the government proposed was right... and right it was going to be. But just before he finished his tirade, he agreed to withhold the legislation for a while and let the city examine it... in a nut shell... Mr. Hooke made his stand for an hour, then backed down trying to look like he was compromising rather than admit he was wrong.

TAYLOR THE EFFICIENT

I am sure it goes without saying in the press row, that Gordon Taylor, the minister of highways is the most efficient cabinet minister in the house. To support this the report on car insurance firms showed that he not only believes in doing a top flight job, he is not pressurized with big business. They tell me he had members of his committee on the job eight every morning and he inspired everyone with his enthusiasm. The report as you know... is hard, it pulls no punches and as a result every driver in the province stands to gain.

UP IN FLAMES. Pictured at the height of the fire which damaged the repair shop of Willard Equipment Ltd., Tuesday, April 19, is the 1959 model car owned by Alan Love, an employee of the company. The recently purchased car, equipped with a new set of tires, was a total loss, however a small garden tractor and new big IHC tractor, inside for an inspection, were both removed with the only loss being tires on the small unit. Allan Love was taken to the hospital for treatment for minor hand burns and was released shortly.

No Likelihood Of Bus Stop Downtown Seen

Mrs. Frieda McRoberts, with Mrs. L. Healy as co-hostess entertained the April meeting of the Reid Hill W.I. at her home Thursday, April 21, one week later than scheduled.

The punctuality draw was won by a visitor, Mrs. Weldon Greenlee. Mrs. Frank Little of Champion, the Constituency Convener, was present and paid her official visit to the branch.

Mrs. C. L. Kuykendall, the president, was in the chair and conducted the meeting assisted by acting secretary, Mrs. John French, in the absence of Mrs. Jack Marshall. The treasurer's report was given by Mrs. Clifford Love.

Correspondence was very light, but did include a letter from the Greyhound bus lines, in reply to a request from Reid Hill that the company consider a stop down town before and after proceeding to the depot.

The branch felt that inasmuch as the regular stop is a considerable distance from downtown, and that a number of citizens from the Dawson Lodge and elsewhere who have no transportation find it a hardship to travel by bus. However, the reply gave no indication that any further service would be provided.

Mrs. Kuykendall, who had attended the recent meeting to make plans for a centennial project, gave her report. She felt that it was too bad there had been such a poor attendance at this meeting and that little could be done. Mrs. French, who had made inquiries into another resolution, re the increase in taxes levied on any improvements made to property gave her report and said she was unable to get any real information as to what could be done in this regard.

Mrs. Earl Deal gave her report on the district convention, held in Calgary in February, which was much enjoyed.

Mrs. Little discussed the spring Home and Country magazine, and dealt extensively with the many fine articles and information in it. She urged the members to try to increase their membership, and also for all members to be truly active, to serve proudly as Institute members and to work always to increase interest in the Institute. Mrs. Kuykendall presented Mrs. Little with a small token of appreciation at the conclusion of her talk.

The 11 members and three guests present answered roll call with an exchange of plants, slips and seeds. Birthday remembrances were presented to Mrs. E. G. McPherson and Mrs. Kuykendall, after which a most interesting contest, arranged by Mrs. McRoberts was won by Mrs. Little and Mrs. French. A reading by Mrs. Little caused much amusement.

Belle Of Bagdad

Calif of Bagdad. Mixed in with serious moments, well handled by leads Betty Dakin and Paul Wald, is an evening of laughter, singing and dancing by character parts taken by Walter Samaroden, Doug Campbell, Linda Voisey, Charles Brinton, Don Hansen, Beverly Budd and others.

Maybe it's the contrast from watching too much dull TV that makes this operetta so refreshing or perhaps it's because this is a local production... in any case, there is much surprising talent heard, there is unlimited enthusiasm shown and you can't help but go home in a happy frame of mind at its conclusion.

It's well worth climbing down from a tractor and into the bathtub to go and see. Rush seats only are being sold and the program begins at 8:30 p.m.

MODERATOR. Bill Walker is now in his fourth season as moderator of CBC-TV's popular panel show Flashback. One of the top-rated shows on Canadian television, Flashback is seen every Sunday on the CBC-TV network.

The meeting was opened by the pledge given by Linda McNiven. Reports followed and the tour of an industrial centre was discussed. Details of the 4-H Rally were discussed.

DINTON

Mr. and Mrs. Don Perryman and friends of Barrhead were weekend visitors with Mr. and Mrs. H. P. Tredder.

W.I. MEETING

The monthly meeting of the Dinton W.I. met at the home of Mrs. Elmer Laycraft assisted by Mrs. Keith McKeage. President Mrs. A. Montgomery welcomed the visitors and Mrs. L. Whitney, constituency convener. Roll call was answered with, Something I wish I could grow.

Constituency Conference will be at Turner Valley, May 10. A bake table will be same as last year. Each branch to give a five-minute identification skit. Guest speaker at the conference will be Miss Carol Lane, women's travel director for Shell Oil.

A donation was voted towards the cemetery gates. Members will be canvassing for the Cancer Society this week. Mrs. Whitney gave a talk on the Indian centre. May meeting will be at Dinton Hall. Plants and bulbs will be for sale. Meeting adjourned to a social tea hour.

CENTENNIAL PROJECT. "Tillucum" is an old Indian word which means friendship, and it's now a new, hopeful word in the language of Home and School.

Tillucum is a Centennial project of the Canadian Home and School and Parent Teacher Federation to promote a better understanding of Canadian Indians. It was launched recently in Toronto and the meeting was attended by Indian leaders, government officials and many others concerned with Indian problems.

Two of the guests are pictured — Chief Wilmer Nadjewan of Ontario's Cape Croker Reserve, and Father J. A. MacKenzie, Trinity College, University of Toronto. He holds a copy of Home and School's newly published Tillucum study-action guide which is being mailed to all 3,700 Home and School associations in Canada. One basic aim of the project — which sprang out of discussions with Indian leaders in many parts of Canada — is to invite Indians to Home and School meetings, listen to their viewpoint, seek ways of working together.

A paper on Agriculture and Canadian Industry was given by Mrs. H. Ferguson. She mentioned that the Red Crab flowering plant was the Centennial plant for Canada and the Centennial flower for Canada is the Cosmos. The paper was very educational and most enjoyable.

Eight members of the local Women's Institute visited the Kirkcaldy Women's Institute on March 8. RECREATION COMMITTEE

The Champion Recreation and Cultural Development Committee met April 14 in the village office. C. J. Versluis introduced Mr. Walters, Southern Area Consultant for recreation and cultural development with the provincial government. Members of the Art Club were present and after routine business the chairman turned discussion to this facet. Mr. Walters explained in detail the aspects open to them in the field of art. He touched on quality of instructors and financial assistance available for instructors through recreation boards. He suggested the advantages of one of their members taking an advanced course and teaching art to the club members in return. The group then turned to discussion of by-laws and responsibilities of the recreation board. The rough draft was gone over item by item and adjusted to suit the Champion committee needs. Copies are to be typed up and available for further action at the next meeting.

A "recreation interests inventory" was shown the group by Mr. Walters and was well taken. This was discussed in some length and due to the lateness of the hour it was decided it be left for further discussion at the next meeting. Also to come before the committee at the next meeting is the possibility of a regional library.

When planning a long trip, perhaps overseas, see your dentist for a thorough checkup of your teeth. A toothache in a strange country would entail finding a strange dentist who would not know your dental history. Make sure that no repairs are necessary to your dentures before you leave.

Vulcan Ranger

formed in February and has a membership of eight Rangers under the leadership of Mrs. H. Mumby and Mrs. A. Sokvitne.

With the permission of the Scout-Guide Association, the Vulcan Ranger and Guide Companies are planning to hold a tea and bake sale annually, the proceeds to be held in trust for the purpose of sending any Ranger or Guide to annual Heritage Camps held in various parts of Canada.

The girls must meet with certain qualifications before application is made to Provincial Headquarters and then the applicants are picked from all Alberta. Each year there is a different number picked to take part in the various camps. This year seven go to British Columbia, eight to Saskatchewan, two to Manitoba, seven to Ontario, eight to Quebec and two to Newfoundland.

By setting up a trust fund now for the purpose of paying traveling expenses and camp fees, the local Rangers, Guides and Brownies have a goal to strive towards to meet the qualifications set out by the Guides of Canada without the worry of causing financial problems to their families, if accepted. The result will be better students and better citizens in the future.

ARE YOU AFRAID TO GO TO A PHYSICIAN?

Recently a physician told about one of his patients who was brought to his office almost in a state of mental collapse. For nearly a year this patient watched a growth on his body become larger and was afraid to go to a physician for fear of hearing the worst. He just worried himself sick.

Fortunately it was a benign tumor, easily removed by minor surgery and now he is well again. But, if it had been cancerous, the delay might have permitted that growth to become incurable, instead of being easily removed before its poison infected the body.

Never fear the worst. If you have reoccurring pains or aches, or unusual body changes, consult a physician quickly. The odds are they will be curable.
